Ingo Money Marketing Guidelines

Ingo Money can have a profound impact on prepaid card program performance and profitability. Among prepaid cardholders who try Ingo Money, more than 60% become repeat users. Two-thirds of those become repeat users in the same or the subsequent month.

Repeat users submit 2.1 checks per month on average for $650 in value.

- Over 92% of checks submitted are for fee-based, immediate funding, demonstrating the overwhelming need for users to get access to their money quickly
- Preprinted payroll and government checks represent 54% of all approved checks; about 33% are two-party, personal checks

Prepaid card programs are experiencing significant increases in prepaid card load value among Ingo Money users, with no measurable cannibalization to existing load volumes or load fee revenues.

- While the average life of a prepaid card is 5.81 months, the average life of an Ingo Money user exceeds 8 months and is growing
- The average Ingo Money user loads 90% more value per month than a non-user
- Over the average prepaid card life (5.81 months), Ingo Money users will load nearly $3,400 in incremental card value
- Projecting card life extension to current Ingo Money average lifecycle, lifetime prepaid load value for an average Ingo Money user could be 254% higher than a non-user

Achieving these results requires consistent, multi-channel marketing, which has proven essential for building consumer awareness and understanding and driving trial and usage of Ingo Money.

Integration of Ingo Money as a core account funding feature and capability in card program marketing messaging is required of Ingo Money SDK clients. Customer lifecycle marketing communications are also required by Ingo Money to drive awareness, education, trial and recurring use of the service. Ingo Money marketing staff will help you develop copy, content and assets for integration into your card program marketing communications to existing and new cardholders for delivery across all supported marketing channels (digital, mobile, social, email, direct mail and IVR).

Integration of new content and positioning into established marketing communications and channels can be challenging, but we are here to help. The Ingo Money SDK Marketing Toolkit provides approved copy and creative assets that may be used in part or in whole or simply serve as thought starters for marketing and marketing agency staff.

Ingo Money Product Positioning

Ingo Money may be positioned effectively as mobile check cashing, mobile check load, or mobile check funds, depending on the make-up of your cardholder base and your primary method of card distribution. The two most compelling and motivating benefits of the Ingo Money service to consumers are:

- Access (Primary functional benefit): Access your money in minutes, anytime, anywhere
- Peace of Mind (Primary emotional benefit): Deposited funds are yours to keep

A combination of functional, education-oriented communications and emotional benefits communications is most effective in motivating trial and use. Ingo Money can provide creative concepts and samples to support your marketing development process.

Ingo Money Approved Messaging

Ingo Money Communication Guidelines

The following list provides an overview of marketing communication requirements and guidelines:

1. All marketing materials must be reviewed and approved by Ingo Money.
2. First mention of Ingo Money in a mobile application and all marketing collateral must include the Ingo Money registration: Ingo® Money.
3. All marketing communications must include all or part of the following legal disclaimer in the footer:

The Ingo Money service is provided by First Century Bank, N.A. and Ingo Money, Inc., subject to the First Century Bank and Ingo Money Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy. Approval review usually takes 3 to 5 minutes but can take up to one hour. All checks are subject to approval for funding in Ingo Money's sole discretion. Fees apply for approved Money in Minutes transactions funded to your card or account. Unapproved checks will not be funded to your card or account. Ingo Money reserves the right to recover losses resulting from illegal or fraudulent use of the Ingo Money Service. Your wireless carrier may charge a fee for data usage. Additional transaction fees, costs, terms and conditions may be associated with the funding and use of your card or account. See your Cardholder or Account Agreement for details.

In certain circumstances, Ingo Money will approve use of an abbreviated disclosure.

4. Ingo Money may NOT be characterized as "mobile deposit," "check deposit" or "remote deposit." In addition, refrain from use of terms like "deposit your check." This distinction is regulatory in nature as the check instrument is not being deposited to the account or cleared by the card issuing institution. Irreversible, non-provisional funds are being deposited to the account resulting from First Century Bank's acceptance of the check instrument in exchange for the funds deposited.
5. All references to the speed of approved check funding transactions should be positioned as "in minutes." Refrain from use of the terms "immediately" or "instantly." Funding is dependent on underwriting and approval, which averages 3 to 5 minutes, but may take up to one hour.
6. Delayed funding transactions will be processed on approved checks in 10 days provided the check does not return unpaid during the 10-day waiting period.
7. All marketing materials must disclose the following:
 - All checks are subject to review for approval. Fees may apply.
 - All references to immediate funding must disclose that there is a fee, for example: Get your money in minutes for a fee.
 - All references to delayed funding transactions should include the timeframe and should not be characterized as "free," but instead, available "at no charge" or for "no fee," for example: Get your money in 10 days for no fee, if your check is approved and is not returned unpaid in 10 days.

Refrain from characterizing fees as "small" or "minor."

Note that for any marketing materials in which explicit transaction fee details are disclosed, the fees should be presented as follows:

- Money in Minutes: 1% for payroll or government checks with preprinted signatures and 4% for other check types, with a minimum fee of $5 per transaction.
- Money in 10 Days: No Fee.

8. Ingo Money accepts most, but not all, check types and all checks are subject to approval for funding. Refrain from using phrases such as "we can accept any check," "we will take any check," or "we will accept any kind of check."
